Katherine "Kathie" Molland

March 26, 2009

Molland, Katherine Lee "Kathie" Beloved wife of 37 years and mother. Born January 9, 1947, passed away March 24, 2009. Survived by sons, Joseph III and Shaun Michael; husband, Joe; and many, many friends and family. Born and raised in Hopkins, MN, Kathie grew to be a beautiful and talented Minnesota girl; she played piano, drums - percussion, sang in the school choir and played in the school band. She was a Hopkins Raspberry Princess in her Senior year and went on to write songs together with her husband. She was a successful model and was featured as the Hilex Genie in their 70's TV ads. Kathie met her husband in 1970 and they were married 2 years later in London where they lived for 5 years and worked together writing music. In 1979 she gave birth to their first son Joseph III and 18 months later bore their second son, Shaun Michael. The family moved back to MN in 1983 and from then until now they lived in Shorewood, MN. Kathie did everything out of love; she touched the hearts of everyone she met and will be greatly missed by all who knew her. The family encourages friends to send flowers. God bless Kathie Molland. A memorial gathering will be held 1-3 PM Saturday, March 28 at: Washburn-McReavy Strobeck Johnson Chapel 1400 Mainstreet, Hopkins 952 938-9020

Dear Joey (sons, friends and Katherine's extended family and friends):I'll never forget getting the news about Katherine. She was the "real deal" and although I only knew her as a fan of yours (Joey) and Badfinger, she (Katherine) ALWAYS answered all her emails and was totally cool with "average guy" Molland/BF fans like me, who's rocked for years to your music-such as I do almost daily here in San Diego, California (I finally moved back to my hometown). Hang in there Molland family and focus on the good memories. May God bless all of you, Joey. Your friend and a GREAT fan of yours for decades.Larry in San Diego, California(Friend of Cheryl's)

We had some fun times back when you both were still in California. I remember babysitting the boys when they were newborn. It's hard to visualize one of you without the other. I just came across a posting about the passing of your wife/mother/friend. I went to see Badfinger play at the old auditorium in Saint Paul in about 1985 or 86. It was so great to hear the band live after only catching bits on classic radio over the years. A woman came up to me and asked me if I liked the band. I told her how cool it was to see them and that I liked their music but could never find any albums so wasn't entirely familiar with the catalog. She gave me a band t-shirt and told me she was married to Joey Molland. She said if I waited that Joey would sign it - so of course I waited! He came out and chatted with us for a bit and of course we were just tongue-tied. He signed my t-shirt and to this day I still have good thoughts about this lady and her rock-star husband who were so nice to us. I still have the t-shirt and the autograph is still there. She touched people you don't even know.

I am absolutely heartsick to hear this. I have fond memories of the time I worked for Joe and Kathie on the "No Matter What" fanzine, and the time that (Rob and I) got to visit them at their home in Minnesota. Kathie was a stunning beauty, and a wonderfully funny, warm, honest woman. I still vividly remember her showing me her collection of clothes from her time spent in London, and told some great stories from those days. God bless you, Kathie. Peace be with you, Joey. Words cannot even begin to express how sad I feel today.

My mother was the coolest mom that boy could ever have. She let us do whatever we wanted and corrected us when we were wrong. This gave us the freedom to find out on are own. She had more willpowere than anyone i had ever met. I don't know how many times i have seen her stand her ground in a room where every one was against her and prove her point. She was blount and some times even offensive with her straight forward comments on what she believed in, right or wrong! She would not back down to anybody ever, it was amazing to see this through out my childhood. At times it was embbarising and i could not believe what she was doing, were my brother and I would hide before she could introduce us to another big intimidating crowd of well known people most of the time. She was so proud of us. She told me personally that she had lived a great life and was amazed that a little girl from hopkins would do the things that she had done. There is nothing like losing your mom, i miss her so much that i have to keep myself busy so i don't get stuck on realizing the fact that she is gone for my remanding years. She taught me so much, saved me so many times, believed in me always, and forgave me when i screwed up. I will forever be changed knowing that she is gone and will never forget what was there between her and I, love, unpparrelled in my life and unforgetable till the afterlife!

My sincere sympathy to the family of Kathie. She was a highschool classmate of mine and our paths have crossed several times over the years since then. She was such a kind spirit and I remember her fondly. She always had such a beautiful smile. I know she touched numerous lives and am certain she will be sorely missed by many. I feel glad to have known Kathie and am truly sad that she has left us way too soon. May your good memories and the love you shared sustain you during this difficult time.

Kathie was a very good friend of mine. She was a fellow artist. She was a loving, kind, understanding, compassionate, and beautiful woman. She helped me on many occasions in several ways including matters in music and concerns with my daughter. Kathie, Joey, and their sons Joe and Shaun have always been very hospitable to me. I consider myself fortunate to have been able to spend time with her and to have known her. All of my thoughts and prayers to Joey, their sons, and families.

My heart dropped when I saw Kathie's notice in the paper today. She and I were friends in junior high school and had just recently reconnected through Facebook. She was always beautiful, both inside and out. I always admired her musical talent and remember turning the sheet music for her when she played the piano to accompany the choir. I don't think there was ever a time that she was at my house that she didn't sit down and play the piano. Even my mother, who was an excellent pianist herself, enjoyed listening to Kathie play.I last saw her at our 35th class reunion. From our conversation it was clear how much she loved and supported Joe and her boys. What lucky men they were. All of us have been lucky to have had her in our lives.Kathie and I were going to get together soon to catch up. I'm so sorry that won't happen. It is another life lesson - to not put things off.

Joey & Family,My deepest feelings go out at Kathie's passing. She never failed to call it as it was and what was on her mind as this was one of her strongest traits and virtues. She never failed to be open minded and was quick to forgive any misgivings caused by any misunderstandings.Since 1986 I have always felt welcome and am grateful for the lifelong friendship that has endured many journeys. For Joe and sons, Kathy was my cousin. Like my sister Judy said, you were very proud to have her as our cousin. She was so beautiful, talented and fun. One of my memories of time spent with her was when my parents, Kathy's Auntie Kay and Uncle Don, took us on a trip to Florida. Kathy and I did not think we had gotten tan enough. We talked my mom into buying us a "sun lamp" so we could darken up. We both got so burnt we could hardly move! Then she decided to color her hair blond and it turned ORANGE! We were quite the site. I have so many great memories of growing up with you, Kathy, thank you.God bless your family in this time of sadness in the loss of your wife and mom. She will truly be missed by so many.

I first met Kathie when Badfinger was spotlighting their "Airwaves" album at the Roxy in Los Angeles in 1978. The room was packed, and we were looking around for empty seats when a soft lady's voice said: "This area is reserved but please sit with us". I thanked her, and she introduced herself as Kathie Molland. That was the beginning of a wonderful friendship that lasted until the receipt of that sad news yesterday.Kathie was such a good friend to me when the Mollands resided in Los Angeles, and remained so for almost the past 30 years. To Joe, Joe III and Shaun, I was so sorry to hear about Kathie. What a shock for you all. She really was a talented Minnesota Girl. Growing up as her cousin, I was always in awe of her. She was so beautiful and truly lived life to the fullest. She will definitely be missed. I know there is a new bright shining star up in the sky. I am keeping you all in my thoughts and prayers. Please take care of yourselves.

My most heartfelt condolences to Joey, Joe III (JoJo) and Shaun. I met Kathie for the first time in 1972, and consider it my great fortune to have been considered by her a trusted friend for all these years. She was passionate, artistic, witty, and not afraid to speak her mind. She was so very proud of her family, and I shall miss her very much.
