Tribute Wall

“ I miss his laugh, his smile and trips to the casino. His love for dogs especially "the poor ol dogs who have nothing to eat." The memories up at his brothers cabins, neighborhood get togethers on Texas Ave when life was simpler and easy going.

I do not miss the hand that life dealt him and his suffering in the nursing homes but I sure miss him and I would love 5 more minutes just to say goodbye.

Sue Bissonette - January 04, 2017 at 05:56 PM

“ I remember sitting and watching golf in the porch with the old wall paper. More humbling than most things I remember from childhood to adulthood
