Sharon Rose Lunak

May 6, 1941 - February 24, 2024

Lunak, Sharon R., age 82 of Arden Hills, entered eternity on Feb. 24, after 2 weeks of hospice care due to cancer and Alzheimer's. Survived by her husband Russ, daughter Carol, son Keith, 5 grandchildren and 3 great grandchildren.

She lived her life rooted in deep faith in Christ and guidance from the Bible. Her work life was one of service both in Cristian ministry, including 15 years in Japan, and in the corporate world, 20 years with Jostens. She enjoyed travel, setting foot in over 30 states and visiting numerous places in Asia and Europe. However, the best trips were to visit the grandchildren.

A Celebration of Life service will be at 11:30 AM, Thursday, March 21, 2024, (Visitation 10:30-11:30) at Calvary Church, 2120 N Lexington Ave., Roseville. In lieu of flowers, memorials are preferred to Calvary Church Missions.

We've been out of touch for many years. I especially remember Sharon in connection with CBFMS (World Venture) because we began service about the same time, she and Russ in Japan and my husband and I in Indonesia. We shared the experience of learning linguistics in Toronto together. My condolences to Russ and the rest of the family.

Beautiful lady! She was so sweet and always knew where to find the answers at JOSTENS. I will always smile when I think of Sharon.

We met Sharon at a Jostens ABM Prayer breakfast many years ago.In the years that followed Her kind and gentle personality made us feel welcome every year right up to her final year of organizing the Prayer breakfast. She has been missed ever since! We thank you her family for sharing her with us at Jostens, she touched many lives! May you all be comforted during your time of bereavement! May she Rest In Peace!
