“ Beth, Ward, and Jo, I was sad to hear about your dad. I have so many memories with my Uncle Al. His pet name for me...Oscar, the time he was teaching me to shoot a deer rifle and I wound up on my butt. I still laugh at that one. Catching tons of fish, being at the lake with your family, buying me chocolate only to have Toby eat it and on my last trip with my daughter when he shared life stories...grateful indeed for that. Let's keep those stories and more going for our kids and their kids. Hugs to you all,
Cousin Sharyl
