“ Anna shared a recipe for "tabooley" (her spelling!) with me when we both worked at Pillsbury School in Minneapolis. She was so caring, so delightful to know, and so generous in every way. She loved working with children, and was interested in everyone she came across. I think I got the recipe from her sometime in the 1990's, and have used it often. I will always remember her wonderful personality, and her beautiful smile.

My sincere sympathy to all of her family. She is missed.

“ While I knew Anna and Stephen only occasionally and from a distance, I was very good friends with Anna's Mother and Father- in - law, Don and Helen Wafler. Don was a deacon at the Cathedral of our Merciful Saviour in Faribault, MN where I was dean. Not only was Don a good colleague, but he and his wife were among my closest friends. And I know they loved Anna!

Peace,

“ We mentored each other through grad school in the sixties, followed by more than 50 decades of fun. Anna enjoyed a long, fulfilled life thanks to her tenacity and the loving care of Steve
