“ To Aex and Tatum, Nick and Athena, Paul and Cindy, Tina, and children, My heartfelt sympathy to you all. Im truly grateful that I was able to visit my dear aunt, only a week before she passed away. I have so many fond memories of spending so much time with her as a young girl. She was a dear soul, and was all about family. She kept all of the cousins close, and always shared stories with all of us. I shall cherish all the special times we have shared for so many years. May her memory be eternal.

“ The Karos Family - Words can't express how sorry I was to hear of Artie's passing. She became "my second mother" as I grew up alongside her own children, always making me feel welcome and part of the family. I was REALLY happy on the nights I was invited to stay for dinner and eat her special rice dish, that to this day, I haven't been able to duplicate! You all were given such a great gift to have Artie as your mom. What a warm, beautiful soul. Love to you - Mary Spell Rice
