“ I worked @ IDS with Betty for many years and what a WONDERFUL person she was! We had lots of laughs and good times. I've got LOTS of good memories of her and she was one of the nicest people I knew. If you needed a hand in any way, she would help you out, if she could. I came from a smaller town in Minnesota before coming to Minneapolis to work, so I kind of felt like she took me under her wing when I first started working at IDS.

She loved spending time in her garden and had a lot of beautiful flowers. I know she furnished flowers from her garden for her church a lot and she was proud and honored to do that! She was a very giving person.

She will be missed!
