

Gayle Stern

February 4, 1946 - January 9, 2022

Betty Gayle Stern of Bloomington, MN passed away January 9, 2022 at her home. Gayle was born February 4, 1946 in Strathclair, Manitoba, Canada. After high school, she moved to the US to join the airline travel industry. She enjoyed her long career with Northwest Airlines in Mpls, MN. Gayle married Delbert L. Stern May 4, 1968 and celebrated their 53rd anniversary, before Delbert's passing in July, 2021. Gayle leaves family, friends and neighbors with great appreciation for their friendship and loving care throughout her life, and especially through this challenging year. Gayle was preceded in death by her husband Delbert, parents Tom and Rose Prus and nephew Shawn Dayton. Her family is left behind to share in the loss of her presence: sister Shirley and (Jim) Dayton of Shoal Lake, MB, sister Jacqueline (Donn) Ravers of Colorado Springs, CO, sister Brenda Lynn Prus of Winnipeg, MB, nephews Darcy Dayton, Ash Short and niece Roberta Dayton. Aunt Frances Goeddel of Albuquerque, NM, brother-in-law Dale (Arline) Stern, sister-in-law Karen (Jerry) Steinbach, Mpls, MN. A memorial will be held for Gayle and her husband Delbert at their final resting place in Strathclair, Manitoba, CA. They lived a good long life together. Our family was so blessed by their presence. Memorial donations may be made in Gayle's name to Accent Care Fairview Hospice.

Comments

“ I loved working, traveling and sharing our birthdays together. Such great memories we made. Rest in Peace dear friend.

Lenore Miller - January 23 at 11:31 AM

“ She must have been a very special friend with all you shared, Lenore. Thank you for sharing. Love and prayers to her family.

Linda Hardwick-Marshall - January 24 at 09:42 AM

“ Gayle was a wonderful friend. We worked together for several years at NWA and had many fun times traveling with both her and Del. May they Rest in Peace.

Leroy & Marilyn Blommel - January 27 at 06:21 PM