“ Dear Elizabeth Joyce,

I learned of Don's passing just today from the most recent issue of "Military Officer." We met in the not distant past and shared a table for dinner at a UW-NROTC Alumni Reunion when Don and I were fellow inductees as charter Distinguished Alumni members. Of course, I had known Don decades earlier as a classmate and midshipman. Sadly and coincidentally, I attended the NROTC reunion last weekend on my way home from my wife Nancy's funeral service in the UP of Michigan. I mentioned Don to the CO and, in retrospect, I believe the NROTC unit may be unaware of his passing. You and I were widowed within a month of each other. So, you see, I am uniquely able to share in your grief. Although everyone experiences grief differently, this I know for certain; Don was a fine man and Nancy was a wonderful woman, wife and mother. Our loss is great. Please accept my sympathy. May God bless you and your family.

Sincerely yours,

Philip M. Palmer, Captain, USN (Ret'd)

“ Dear Joyce and Don's family, When I joined DKQ in 1972 Don was a mentor for me--I enjoyed playing bridge with both of you. Don's replacement in the Navy Reserve was my roommate at Notre Dame so we had another connection. I will miss him. Love, Joe McBride
