

Douglas Eugene Rasmussen, Sr.

June 18, 1947 - March 10, 2022

Rasmussen, Douglas Eugene born June 18, 1947, of Coon Rapids passed away peacefully with his son by his side on March 10, 2020. He is preceded in death by parents Blanch and Harry, daughter Dawn and loving wife Debra. Survived by sisters Nan (Rob), Cindy (Rick), Mary (Chris), Frankie and many nieces and nephews, daughter Casey (David), son Douglas Jr (Brittany), grandchildren Christina, Andruw, Bailey and Jaxen. After graduating from Spring Lake Park High School, Douglas joined the United States Army where he served for many years. Following his time with the Army, he was employed at Metal Matic where he made numerous lifelong friends. Many years of his life were dedicated to providing foster care and being involved in coaching children's athletics in Coon Rapids. He loved music, reading and sports. However, his greatest love was his family. Douglas had a soft spot. There wasn't a person in the world he could say "no" to, he was always willing to help. Douglas had quite a sense of humor, always keeping those around him laughing. After his illness he met many new people in the form of medical care givers - so many of them reiterated how much he had touched their lives in a short period of time. Douglas is unforgettable, one of a kind, an easy to remember person. He touched many people during his last few months on earth. He will be missed deeply by all - those who knew him for many years and those he had known for only a short time. Visitation Friday, March 25, 2022 starting at 5 PM with Memorial Service at 7 PM at Washburn McReavy Coon Rapids Chapel. He will be laid to rest at Fort Snelling on Monday March 28, 2022.
