“ Don,

So saddened to hear about the passing of Evie. We could not have asked for better neighbors. Scott and Eric were so fortunate to be raised in a neighborhood with such caring neighbors like you and Evie.

“ Don,

My heart is heavy with the loss of Evie. I am so sorry for your loss. You and Evie truly blessed our family with your love and generosity. And, as you know, only you and Evie, and my Mom and Dad, have been with me since the beginning of my life! ;) So much of our childhood was spent with you and Evie. So many memories of Pepsi, sleeping at your home, Pepsi, dance club parties at our home, wearing Evie's clothes (including underwear!) after being pushed in the pool at Windom Park, special Christmas gifts, and more Pepsi! We will truly miss Evie and the energy she brought to every room. It has been wonderful doing our short trips together over the past several years. I will miss our times together and Evie, but am grateful for the wonderful memories you and Evie have given us over so many years.

“ Evie was my godmother and a wonderful woman. My first recollection of her was at my first communion when she gave me a beautiful pink rosary. I still treasure that. When I got a bit older, she and Don took me to a luncheon. I felt so grown up and wanted to parallel what they ordered. When I ordered salad with Blue Cheese dressing, Evie said that she did not think I would like it. So she ordered French dressing for me. She, of course, was right. Through the years we saw each other occasionally, usually funerals and weddings. I was most delighted a few years ago when my sister and I went to the YMCA to work out and there again connected with my godparents... for there was Evie and Don, doing their thing. I have always been grateful for them being there, especially after my own parents passed away. Evie dear, you know that you are in my prayers every day. And I know that some day I will join you at the family picnic table in Heaven. Don, you know I love you too, and I pray that every memory of your beloved wife is a wonderful one. Take care and God Be With You Honey.

“ Don,
I am so deeply sorry on the loss of Evie. You and Evie have always been so wonderful to us girls. We were truly blessed to have you both in our lives. I so fondly remember dance club parties at your house as a child and happily falling asleep to the lull of the group's laughter. Evie will be missed by us, and so many. “ Don,
We are so sorry for your loss! Evie was truly one of a kind! I wouldn't know where to start with memories, since I have an actual lifetime full of them! You both have been a part of my family since before I was born. I'm glad I had the chance to talk about some of those memories with her, along with Mom at one point.

I'll miss her and am thankful for her gambling trip opportunities to see you both!

Love you!
