“ Harvey was always interested in Jim’s old friends. Whenever I saw him, he remembered my name. He was a no nonsense guy, but very gracious in many ways. My best to Jerry, Jim, Janet and Jack and families. A live well lived.

“ What a special joy it was to work with Harvey. As a new soybean account manger in Sioux City and later in Wichita Harvey was a special friend and mentor. His wonderful management style and personality and strong ethics made him such a great mentor to so many of us. Always special to be with and always looking sharp remembering two of his sons had a fine men's clothing store in the Cities. What a special occasion to see and visit with Harvey at a 25 year Club Dinner at the Cargill Center when I believe he was 98.

And at 98 he seemed not to have aged much. A truly remarkable friend and gentleman.

I know we will see Harvey again in Heaven. Blessings to his family. George Landsverk, Fort Collins, CO
