“ Heidi, you're going to be missed by all your loved ones. I'm going to miss seeing your beautiful eyes. I know when we visited you lately I did a lot of talking and you listened with your heart. Gary and I remember when you were small and you wore your hair in cute piggy ears. You were a joy and made a lot of people smile. We know it in our hearts that you wanted to go to be with Grandma and Grandpa, well you finally made it! You are free now and you can be happy, so sweet dreams, until we meet again, we love you.

“ Since I can remember, we were inseparable. Being with her for even a second always made me smile. I remember those times we would go bowling, and what an adventure that was. Lol We spent so much time playing, and even a game I invented called Superbug. We would turn off all the lights in the basement and then we had to guess correctly who we caught. I caught Heidi once, but instead guessed Jenny because I was playing with two Jenny's I figured I had a better chance of being right by guessing Jenny, but I was wrong. I also didn't know I had my finger down Heidi's throat the whole time and she never gagged once! I was impressed! Lol I will always treasure those good old days, having near food fights in my bedroom on Thanksgiving, running around an empty church at the Brustad bash Christmas party, and all those Easter's we spent ducking from an incoming backwards bowling balls Heidi threw. Lol Oh how we had fun together lol. I will always remember my cousin, who was like a sister to me. I will always love you Heidi. See you later.
Sincerely,
Gary Jr.

“ I loved Heidi so very much and will miss her dearly! One of my favorite memories is sliding down the steps at the Coon Rapids house trying not to get caught! I also have fond memories of ice skating at the rink. I loved visiting you in your nursing home washing and braiding your hair. We escaped out the back as I took you outside to see the birds not realizing you wanted to see the ones up at the front of the building.

We figured that out later and went there too! Love you and will miss you forever!
