“ lone was my mom's little sister. She was calm and collected and a slow walker - probably because her rheumatoid arthritis caused her pain at most times, but she never complained, she was always ready with a smile and a laugh and our families had great times together - we were lucky! The sisters would take a trip up north every summer to check out the farm and church where they grew up. lone loved little kids, not just her grandkids, long before they came along her house was grand central station for all the neighborhood little kids. She loved her cats - Pierre, Duffy, Oliver...I think it was Oliver that really only liked her:-) I remember the time she got run over by a bicycle on the sidewalk! Terrible, but we all laughed - she laughed.. We could talk for hours about Nancy Grace's cases or the current unsolved murder mystery...

These are just some things I will hold in my memory about lone.

Rest in peace, or celebrate - you had quite a welcoming committee in heaven.
