“ Lorraine and family

Pastor Jim was certainly a busy man in the church. His obituary, I'm sure, tells only a small portion of all he really did. It was a real pleasure for me to get to know both of you during the time you were in Moorhead and I sold you your home. Both of you were so easy to work with. I'm sorry we lost touch these past years, but know now that my family will talk about Pastor Jim and will keep you and your family in our prayers. Bless his memory.

“ I remember Jim as a person to seek out at Trinity, Laporte, MN. He was a fine preacher, with an unusual command of theology. In many ways, he was a professor's professor. He will be missed by many people in many places. Blessings to you Lorrie. Sincere sympathy, Rev. John Golv
