Jennie (Chovan) Anderson

Anderson (Chovan), Jennie October 1, 1931 Mpls., MN. Jennie passed away Dec. 22, 2017 in Brooklyn Park to be united and reunited with Our Loving Lord; husband, Sander Anderson; and family after declining in health. Jennie was born in Blackduck, MN to Susana and Daniel Chovan, whom immigrated from Czechoslovakia in 1916, becoming American citizens. Jennie was raised with her Czech heritage and language integrated with the American culture. She spoke Czechoslovakian (Slavic) fluently. Jennie was educated in Mpls. at Monroe Elementary, Seward Middle School and South HS where she graduated. Susana worked at St. Mary's Hospital and Jennie followed suit working there throughout her teen years. She next began a career as the Secretary to the Editor of the Mpls. Star Tribune. She met the love of her life, Sander, in 1968. Together they started their own business in a "Coast to Coast Hardware" Store in White Bear Lake for 25 years until retirement. Jennie was also a loving caregiver to her mother, Susie, who lived to be 100 years old and to her brother Glen, born physically challenged who lived to 72 years. Predeceased by parents, Daniel and Susana Chovan; brothers, John, Frank, Daniel, and Glen; sisters, Edith Lindfors, and Ruth Robinson. Survived by sister, Florence Severson in San Diego; brother William Chovan of Richfield; nieces and nephews. Jennie and Sander had no children of their own. Both were loved by nieces and nephews. Her niece, Sharon Shumaker, has been her angel on earth throughout to her final days. Jennie requested not to have a service and will be buried at Medina Cemetery with her loving husband. Jennie was a great advocate of The Cancer Society and Alzheimer's Association, if you would like to donate in her memory...Thank you! May you take all our love with you Jennie (Jennika). We will all miss you so very much.
