She also enjoyed bowling and league play at Lariat Lanes in Richfield. “ Aunt Pat had hundreds of stories, each one funnier than the last. There was always laughter whenever she was around. Aunt Pat, Mom and I flew down to Georgia together, They got the tickets, come to find out mine was also a senior ticket, I was in my 40s, on top of that we were in the very back of the plane right next to the jet engines, Couldn't hear a word each one was saying..On top of that when we got to Georgia we couldn't land because of severe storms. We ended up flying to Alabama to refuel. Aunt Pat was so happy because when we deplaned, we found out you could smoke in the airport. Win win! That is just one of many stories.. Gonna miss you Aunt Pat, but I bet you're dancing in heaven with your brothers and sisters. Love to Jeff and family, Jeff, and Dwight... Your cousin Sue..

“ What a wonderful tribute from Pat's cousin, Sue. Pat was a special childhood and adolescent friend. Humor, fun, and an underneath seriousness penetrated her positive attitude. Performed lots of cartwheels with her!
