“ Ron treated me like one of the gang at WCCO, even though I didn't "technically" work for the station. He always made me feel like a valuable part of the team. What a gift he was to me.

“ I am so terribly sorry for your loss. Ron was simply a dear wonderful man. His intellect impressive, his wit contagious. Ron and Billy were dear friends for so many years at WCCO TV. Billy loved him, we loved him. He was one of those people who always worked at leaving things better than he found them. I know that I am better for having known him. Love goes with him, and loves stays with you Dear Marcie.

“ My husband Bob and I have known Ron for many years. What I've always thought and said is that Ron had an absolutely amazingly funny sense of humor. So quick and right on the topic without skipping a beat. Also, Ron had a precious, soft, demeanor about him and was a beautiful, gentle soul. His love for Marcie was always apparent to anyone who knew them. That they both suffered over the past months is one of life's mysteries. Now, however, Ron is in Heaven on angels' wings with renewed strength, life, youth, perfect health and vitality. We pray for Marcie to find strength in the memories of Ron and their blessed marriage, knowing she has so many friends who love her and are praying for her every single day.
