“ I'm so sorry for the loss of, Ted. He was a wonderful man. I enjoyed chatting with him at the school, whether it was at a school function, or outside waiting to pick up kids. What a fantastic grandpa! I will miss his smile the most, I never saw him without one. I will miss him at Halloween. Ted always made it very special for kids and adults alike.

“ Dear Trish and family, Tom and I were so sad to hear of Teds death. He was too young but God had plans for him that we were not aware of. We have so many memories of Ted over the years at neighbor parties, our famous block parties and many games of cards. We remember that Ted always had a smile no matter what the circumstances, He was so great with kids and fun to watch as he brought them around the neighborhood. You could tell they adored him and were having a great time We will miss him but grateful his suffering has ended. May his memories bring you peace. You are in our thoughts and prayers.
