Levesque, Walter R. Bloomington, MN Walter "The Kid" Roland Levesque died on January 17, 2021 after fighting a lengthy battle with prostate cancer. Walter was born in Newmarket, New Hampshire to Roland and Helen Levesque. He graduated from the University of New Hampshire and earned an MBA from Babson College. Walter loved traveling with family and friends, growing raspberries and making jam, spending time with 'book club', and orchestrating elaborate seafood dinners. His family called him "the man of action" because little could slow him down. He loved Minnesota Lynx basketball, kayaking, cribbage, Harry Potter, John Fogerty music, and all things New England. Go Red Sox! He lived by the sayings Positive Mental Attitude (PMA) and Use Good Judgement (UGJ). He was a lifelong learner and environ-mentalist, and became a Master Water Steward in recent years.
