

A. Charles Bartels

May 14, 1931 - August 29, 2025

Bartels, A. Charles "Chuck"

Age 94 of Bloomington, passed away on August 29, 2025. Preceded in death by wife, Audrey; children, Gayle and Kevin; and brother, Ron. He will be deeply missed by daughter, Cindy Bartels; sister, Gloria; and many nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Chuck and Audrey owned Bartels Electronics in Richfield from the mid-70's through the mid-2000's. Chuck was nearly a charter member of Portland Avenue UMC and served on many committees there. He supervised the installation and maintenance of the sound system and sang in their choir. Chuck was an avid radio control model airplane builder and flyer. He played the accordion and organ for his own enjoyment. He could also fix just about anything. Chuck was known for his green thumb with both his flower and vegetable garden. He maintained his garden well into his nineties.

A funeral service will be held on Friday, September 5, at 2PM with visitation one hour prior at Washburn-McReavy Dawn Valley Chapel (9940 Bush Lake Rd., Bloomington). Interment Dawn Valley Memorial Park.

“ Was so saddened to learn of Chuck's passing. I had not seen him for many years, but was proud to present him with his 50 year acknowledgement as a member of the West Concord Langemo Post 295 in May of 2025. We had a wonderful visit and shared some history that day.

“ Sorry to hear of his passing. Chuck was a wonderful person, always a kind word and helping hand. He was wonderful with our children, especially with our son Joseph, whom he formed a bond with his model airplanes. Even though we didn't get back to MN as much as we'd like, it was always great to se Uncle Chuck and Aunt Audrey.

“ I will dearly miss my “Uncle Chunk” His unwavering optimism was truly something special.

One of my most vivid childhood memories is of playing jacks with him on the steps of my old house. While distance unfortunately limited our time together, those moments were precious.

During our last visit , June of 2018, I was treated to a tour of his basement “hangar”. His captivating stories a testament to his passion and meticulous nature.

I picture him now, smiling, sitting around the table with my Aunt Audrey, my Dad and all the others that went before. Enjoying popcorn, apples and cheese.

With Love, Janeen Horner
