“ My family were neighbors with the ficzeri's. They were all like my brothers and sheila was a wonderful mother. I was so shocked when i heard the news on Adam. I have so many memories of him, I can not pick 1. Adam had a great sense of humor and was always worried with his appearance. He was smart and always could make you laugh. He will be truly missed!

“ Adam was one of those guys who if you were lucky enough to work in the kitchen with him really helped make your program so much better. He was the epitome of hard work and where a life of recovery can take you. I will miss him very much I am so sorry for this loss.

“ I really appreciated Adam as a friend. I also respected Adam's loyalty to his job and work at Teen Challenge. He was a humble, respectful, hard working, and respected guy who would do whatever he could to be there for others. He is already dearly missed by me and so many. Pamela, the kids, and the whole family are in our thoughts and prayers.
With love,
