

Adam Vongphachanh Vo

February 14, 2016

Vo, Adam Vongphachanh age 11, passed away peacefully in his sleep on February 14th, 2016. He is survived by his caring mother Vieng, loving brothers Al and Alex, and his kind sister, Nicole. Due to a violent car accident, Adam was born premature on July 6th, 2004. As a result of the car accident, Adam suffered from cerebral palsy as well as other mental and physical complications. Though he may have lacked the majority of his communication skills, Adam will be remembered for his bright personality and ability to touch people's heart. His family invites you to honor his memory at the Crystal Lake Funeral home this Saturday, February 20th, at noon.
