

Adeline D. Malvey

October 13, 2012

Malvey, Adeline D. (Zahn) Age 84 of Minnetonka, passed away peacefully on October 13. Adeline was born to Deno and Emil Zahn on April 30, 1928 on their farm in Gardena, ND. She was a graduate of Gardena High School and received her R.N. degree from St. Andrew's Hospital in 1950. She practiced as a nurse for ten years, caring for Korean-war veterans and their families in Washington, working at a tuberculosis hospital in Colorado, and practicing as a family nurse in North Dakota. In 1959 she married the love of her life, Dr. Kenneth Malvey. In their life together they volunteered in their church and community, traveled the world, and celebrated family and friends. Adeline was an avid gardener, piano player, horse- and opera-lover. She loved the outdoors and taught her grandchildren how to ski, ride horse and swim. Adeline is preceded in death by her parents, her husband, her 3 brothers, Arthur, Elmer and Raymond and her stepdaughter Marion. She is survived by her sisters, Mildred (Marland) and DeLila; as well as stepchildren, Eleanor Chamberlain, Kenneth and Marit Malvey and Peter (Ginny) Malvey; nieces, nephews, grandchildren and great-grandchildren are living in various parts of the country. Great thanks to the staff at Jones Harrison for their loving care. Funeral service on October 26 at 11 AM at Zion Lutheran Church, Hopkins with reviewal 1 hour before the service. Luncheon to follow. Interment at Oak Creek Cemetery in Bottineau, ND. Memorials preferred to Lutheran Social Services or the University of MN Medical School.
