“ Neo, my friend, was a very hard working, dedicated and a person with ambitions, nothing could stop him from achieving toughest goals in life. My friendship with Neo over ten years felt like I knew him for much longer time. He will always be missed. I pray from Lord to place him at peace and give patience to his family and loved ones to bear this loss.

“ Neo was a good Christian and devoted family man. He always wanted the best for his family. He was a caring person to all people. He just enjoyed making people happy. He enjoyed all of the Hagan family as they enjoyed knowing him as well. He loved his food especially BBQ and seafood. The Hagan family will miss having him around especially during the holidays. We wish you a special place in heaven: Ronald and Helen Hagan, Tony, Marina, and Joey Russo, along with the other Hagan family members. We love you and God bless you Neo.

“ Sia was my very intelligent brother. He love to fly when he was a teenager. He work with our Singapore Airforce n also got training in the US. After the US trip he decided to migrate to US. He was very happy n bring his family over n his 2 boys all are educated in US.

*He love to help people and has a lot of friends .
In his work he was very ambitious, hardworking and careful.*

In 2021 he received Salute to Excellence Award and we are very proud of him.

He was a caring brother who will take leave to bring us around US when we visited him.

It is very painful to accept his sudden death. He is now in God's hand and Rest In Peace, but you are still living in our hearts of those who stay.

*Dearly missed you n always remember you.
I would like to thank all his colleague n friends had help him.*

“ Dear brother Sia

You left us so suddenly n we are in deep shock and sorrow. You are a loving brother who care for yr siblings. You are hardworking n gd in yr studies. You have a gd body structure and almost became a model. When you are being enlisted for NS you always think of becoming a pilot. You are afraid that yr dear parents will disapprove but you got their blessings and joined RSAF. We are so proud that you had fulfilled your dream of being a pilot and worked your way to become a Captain. Your actions were always kind. A generous hand and an active mind. Anxious to please and loath to offend. In the course of yr work as a pilot, safety is always in yr mind. Upon completion of your career you migrated to US with yr family. In the US you are with the aviation piloting helicopters as air ambulance. You had received several safety awards n also from Helicopter Association International that proudly present Salute to Excellence Safety Award. You had created a SMS system in Safety in the aviation field. We are proud of you.

You enjoyed many good things in your life especially food but you forgot to take good care of your health.

My dear brother Sia, you are now in good hand with God. We missed you dearly.

To my dear SIL Minna, nephew Nik n Alex please stay strong n safe with God blessings.

Love from Jocelyn and your brothers n sisters

“ Aik Sia loved a good mahjong game. We spent many hours playing together, laughing & eating at his home in Bukit Timah. I shall miss his laughter & his jovial character.

He had a penchant for good food too. I recall our long lunches, often to far-flung places. He would often over-order a wide variety of dishes.

Aik Sia loved to fiddle with his hi-fi equipment. I remember accompanying him to the UK in 1997. The moment he landed, he bought a magazine which listed sellers of tubes for his amplifier. By the time we got to the hotel, he had identified a couple of potential contacts, which he proceeded to call. The next day, we drove all the way to Leeds & back to London - to buy a few dozen tubes at £1 each.

That is the kind of man Aik Sia was. Passionate & determined, yet not demanding. He had a quiet way of getting what he wanted, of bringing people onboard. In all my years of knowing him, I've not seen him lose his cool or his temper.

Peggy & I send our deepest condolences to Minna & all at home. Take comfort that Aik Sia is resting in peace in God's arms. God Bless

“ My Dearest Brother; Aik Sia,

I was looking forward to see you in the coming months but you left so suddenly.

You cared so much for me and all of us in Singapore and these precious memories of our bond of love and care will always be remembered.

No words can describe the pain and sadness that you are no longer here but you're forever in my heart.

Goodbye to you dear Brother, you deserve eternal rest.

I will miss you Dear Sia!

“ *Neo was my Commanding Officer while I was a junior instructor in the RSAF squadron. He was a cheerful, friendly and caring superior. He loves good food, likes good music and drive nice car. And was very generous in sharing good things with us. He was very detailed in his work and always strive to achieve the best, lead us through cool, calm and collected manner. I remember he has this favorite code : Don't argue, just do it but said it in the jovial way when he wants us to follow his instructions. He care about our well-being and family life, he would invite us to house to share his favorite food and catching up with his family members while in Singapore as his wife Minna is also very warm and hospitable.*

We will surely missed him but take comfort that he is going to a better place.

Our condolences to Minna and her family members.

“ Neo was a man who loved God and sought to live “for excellence”unto Christ’s glory.....in his day to day work. He did his work well because he cared for people’s safety in air travel. But why did he care for people? It is because he was a follower of Christ and saw people as God’s creation to be cared for! It is also because he was a man of integrity. He felt if you do a job, it should be done right. If mistakes are made, then examine them and make the necessary corrections.

This is why Neo won awards in his employment field. But some may not know what motivated him? It was his love for Christ first and foremost, followed by a desire to provide for his lovely wife Minna, who was always by his side. He also loved his sons and was quite proud of them. How do I know that? It is because he told me so and I saw it from his life.

Neo was quite friendly and has lots of friends everywhere. He will be sorely missed by many people all over the world.

*Neo, we as your fellow friends in His church, will see you again soon in Christ’s new kingdom to come! Come, Lord Jesus, come!
Love in Christ,*

“ Neo was a good co-worker and great friend. He always gave his best and watched out for those under his charge or those who had the pleasure of working with him. While this is a great loss in those of us he left behind, I take comfort in knowing he is going on to the rewards of heaven.

A light hearted moment and memories of Neo. He was a lover of clay pot rice. We had it at Geylang, Singapore many years back. We had this meal together with his younger son. He scrapped every grain of the burnt rice, which he savoured. Till now, we had not meet anyone that can 'clean' up the claypot as well as Neo. Minna was away then. May this sharing bring some fond memories for Minna and his family.
