

Alex M. Kamara

August 12, 1964 - December 14, 2024

Alex Musa Kamara was born on August 12, 1964, in Freetown, Sierra Leone, to Emile Tamba and John Wesley Kamara. He attended Albert Academy Secondary School in Freetown from 1980 to 1984, graduating with a high school diploma.

Seeking a brighter future, Alex immigrated to Saudi Arabia in the early 1990s. He later moved to the United States in 2000, where he pursued further education at John Woody College of Technology, earning an Associate of Science degree in Robotics and Technology in 2012.

Alex also worked at Caribou Coffee Warehouse in Minnesota, where he skillfully operated various machinery. His exceptional work ethic and dedication earned him respect and admiration from his colleagues.

Alex will be deeply missed for his kind heart, humility, and unwavering commitment to his work. He is survived by his loving mother, brothers, sisters, aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends, both home and abroad.

May Alex Musa Kamara rest in eternal peace.
