“ I want to say that because of Alex I wanted to do more to help others. He was a happy kid even when he had all of the reasons to complain or stay down. I will miss our fishing times we had and I will never forget the fun we had.

“ Alex was the biggest of all the cousins. Maybe not in size but in personality. He would hide in the background and then out would come something witty and there he was. We will miss him so very much.

“ I am sorry for your loss. May you rely on the God of all comfort during this difficult time. He promises that one day we will not suffer from sickness and death (Isaiah 33:24 and Revelation 21:3,4) He provides us with the hope of seeing our loved ones again by means of the resurrection (Isaiah 26:19 and John 5:28,29)How thankful we are that our grand Creator, Jehovah plans to restore his original purpose and make it possible for all mankind (including our loved ones we have lost in death) to live forever under perfect conditions. (Matthew 6:10; Job 14:14 & 15). Please accept my condolences as you deal your loss and contemplate the hope of seeing him once again.

“ Dear Melissa and Jim and Amanda,

My heart breaks for you. Alex was such a sweet and brave young man. You were such a loving support to him through all these years.

I found photos of him when he was just a 5 year old Kindergartner in my classroom... long time ago. That's how I will always remember him.
