“ My Ally Boy, It's been almost 8 months since I last saw you. I remember the big hug and kiss on the forehead you gave me that night when I dropped you off. Little did I know that would be our fond farewell. I think about you every minute of the day and how our lives have changed. My hope is that some day we'll meet again, I'll hear that big "YO" greeting you always gave me and a big bear hug and kiss on the forehead. You'll always be with me in my heart till we meet again. Take care Big Al. All my love. Dad

“ Al was always the one to make everyone bust a gut laughing because of all the funny stuff he would do. We were up in lake of the woods ice fishing with a big group of guys. We were in the heated fish houses, fishing was slow so Al decided turn the heater all the way up to see how hot it would get. After about 10 mins, Nate Shup and I could not take the heat anymore so we got the hell out of the fish house. After about a half hour we went to check on Al and Volner... we open the door and see them two stripped all the way down to their boxers dripping with sweat : ) Later on that same day, Al thinks of another great idea ; p he took all the fishing line off his rod and tied his line to his big toe then started to jig his bait by lifting his leg up and down ha ha. Al you truly are one of a kind and I'll miss you everyday love you brother.

“Dave, Sandy and Chrissy I was so saddened to hear about Alex's passing. My heart goes out to your family. I will never forget times that Alex and I shared growing up together. Alex had such a love for exploring and imagining. I'll never forget searching for frogs and racing up the sand mountain at your cabin. When Alex and I were together, we were in our own world. Alex was my first "best friend". I'll always remember Alex by the twinkle in his eye. Lots of love to you all.

“ Dear Sande, Dave, and Chrissy, My thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time. I will always remember Alex as an outstanding athlete. Alex was involved in wrestling as heavyweight, football player, and catcher in baseball. I was always told you do not want to try stealing second base when Alex was catching the pitches, unless you want to make an out. Alex had a strong arm to throw out the runner attempting to steal a base. Please let me know if you need any help.

“ Hill Family So sorry for the loss, was totally shocked when I heard about it. I always think of all the humor Al brought, from football games to wrestling meets. My best memory of Al was my sophomore year and his junior year in wrestling. We kind of had a easy practice and were screwing around and he told me to call Tommy Jacobs "Block Head" to try to set him off. I had no idea that it would so I said it and before I knew it I had him on top of me with the entire team laughing at me. Lots of laughs and a great guy is all that is need to be said.

“ David, Sande, No words or actions can help ease the heartache you are going through. It is so hard to believe Al is gone. It was just two weekends ago we were talking of Al's exploits in Northern California. Al was one of a kind a definite free spirit which I always admired and respected him for that rare quality. Whenever you saw him he would always flash that great smile of his which would always brighten your day. He was a great kid who grew up to be a great young man. We are all very sorry for your loss. I hope these few pictures will put a smile in your heart and help you get through this terrible tragedy. He left us to soon. Our Thoughts and Prayers are with you. Joe and Karen Langer

“ We little knew that morning that God was going to call Al's name. In life we loved him dearly, In death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone; for part of us went with you, the day God called you home. You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide, and though we cannot see you, you are always at our side. Our chain is broken and nothing seems the same, but as God calls us one by one the chain will link again. Our thoughts and prayers are with you always
