“ I will never forget when my husband Lloyd took me over to a huge, three-story house to meet Alice and Ollie. Entering through the back door (as family are expected to do) I was awed by the pile of boots in a huge box. I looked at Lloyd with my eyebrows raised. "Ollie loves baseball and expected to play professionally until a service accident. Hence nine children so that he could at least be a coach with a home town team!" A complete tour of the home given by Ollie was very humorous; e. g. as he indicated a large bedroom he said, "This is a girl's room but I don't know which because they change rooms like bluebird. Whichever of the nests is comfortable that night."

“ Oh, Pat....sending my sympathy and hugs. A father/daughter relationship is soooo special and there will be a corner of your heart that will hold him forever. I know....they can't live forever (my Dad was 89 1/2) but we sure wish they would. Knowing you, I'm certain he was a very kind, loving and good-natured man with a saving faith in the Lord and revered by everyone who knew him. I will be holding you and your family up in prayer in the coming week, especially your Mom who will be coping with loneliness after 67 years of marriage...WOW! Hope to see you somewhere, sometime....do you go to the retired ladies breakfast at the Keyes? It was today at 8:30 am, but, had horse business this am. I plan to get to that gathering one of these months.
