“ My husband, Don, and I first met Alice and Don in Oct. of 1962 when we moved next door to them. Our backdoors faced each other and we had a path worn thru the grass because of all the traffic going back and forth. Our kids were close in age and we had many memorable times with the two families. Alice was from a family of 15 and I was also from a family of 15. I'm so grateful for the presence of Alice and Don in my life and grateful for all the fun memories. I miss you Alice. RIP
