

Alice Lillian Scheefe

November 20, 1922 - April 8, 2022

Alice Lillian Scheefe, age 99, died on 4/8/22. She joins loved ones in Heaven: husband, John Scheefe; parents, Emil & Alice Schmidler; brother, William Schmidler; son-in-law, Paul Schmitt; and many loved relatives and friends. Thankful for her life are: daughters, Susan Scheefe, Sally Scheefe (John Walters); step-grandchildren, Gretchen Schmitt (Kirk Honour), Heidi Youngdahl (Peter), Dietrich Schmitt (Tracy Miller); and 5 great grandchildren. Alice was born in Minneapolis on 11/20/1922. She was baptized, confirmed, and married at Russell Avenue Lutheran Church. Besides family gatherings, travel, and shopping, she loved her dogs. She had amazing skills as a wife, mother, friend, volunteer, business woman, and hostess. We nick-named Alice, Betty Crocker. She was a creative thinker who solved problems for all of us. Alice's generous, humble nature made those around her feel valued. Her teasing sense of humor lasted until the end. We are going to miss daily chats with this kind, classy lady.

Memorial service is Tuesday, April 19 at 11AM at Washburn-McReavy Edina Chapel. Visitation one hour prior. Private Interment at Hillside Cemetery.

Special gratitude to the superb, caring staff at Walker Methodist Care Suites of Edina, Allina Health Hospice, & NC Little Hospice.
