“ Alida was truly a gift from God. She was a little spark plug that would ignite the fire inside anyone who loved learning. She was a blessing to those that entered her life. You always left with a smile and a desire to know her more. She became friends with my Grandpa and then took my two sons in as her own. She would get out her little notebook whenever we came to visit so that she could write down what was new in their lives. That's what made Alida such a great teacher... She cared about you and always wanted to learn more.
