“ Hopefully this is the correct Al Otos, but then again, hopefully not. I knew Al through my marriage to Mary Kearney in Prior Lake. We were at his wedding to Peggy as well. Al was always very good to me. He gave me a job when I was in between, and when they had their cabin on an island on Prior Lake we spent a lot of time there. Prior Lake is known for it's fluctuating lake levels, and one day I had pulled out of our lake access dock and though it was a ways away, I could almost immediately see something going on at the island, but could not tell what it was. As I got closer, there was Oty, scrambling in and out of the lake, removing some "structure" he had put in earlier to promote fishing. Looked like fun so I beached the boat and jumped in too!!! Allan was a very strong conservationist!!! I could go on and on, suffice it to say that Allan Otos was quite a character, boat racer, sailor, etc. and so forth. I know he had his faults as we all do, but I considered him a very good friend. Mark Campbell
