

Allan "Pat" Mulligan

January 30, 2008

Mulligan, Allan E. "Pat" (1934-2008) Pat Mulligan passed away quietly on Sunday, January 27, 2008, in Minneapolis, MN, surrounded by his immediate family. Born in Two Harbors, MN, he spent most of his childhood in Brainerd, graduated from St. John's University and William Mitchell College of Law, and spent 35 years at the Larkin Hoffman law firm in Bloomington prior to retiring in 1999. Survived by children Patrick Mulligan (Camille Gage, daughter Jen Rossum), Kathleen Mulligan (Garry Waldeck), Molly Rothstein, Kevin Mulligan (Dawn Knutson); grandchildren Samuel Rothstein, Clara Rothstein, Michaela Rothstein, Grace Rothstein, Nicholas Mulligan and Lily Waldeck; sisters Zita Johnson (Pen Johnson) and Patricia Mulligan (Georgia Mason); brother Arthur W. "Mike" Mulligan (JoAnn Mulligan); and numerous nieces, nephews, other family members and close friends. A retired attorney and former English teacher, Pat will be remembered for his spirited wit and deep affinity for the written and spoken word. His legal skills were widely recognized by clients, colleagues and professional organizations, culminating in his leadership of the firm's real estate department for several years. Outside of work, Pat's passions for music, the arts, social justice, environmental issues, fishing, hunting, fine food and wine were evident in his activities and affirmed by those with whom he shared his life. Heartfelt thanks to the staff at Jones- Harrison Residence who demonstrated to Pat and his family their commitment to honoring the full circle of life, and to Twin Cities Hospice for their excellent and compassionate care.
