“ LARGER THAN LIFE

Whenever I think of my “Uncle Al,” he seems so big. I know now, as an adult, that he wasn’t very big or tall. But his antics touched us all.

He was a fun-loving schemester

My memory collage of Al Johnson is so wonderful that I have to express myself.

I was just a fortunate bystander. He was so much fun to be around because of examples such as these.

He took us flying over the lake in his orange sparkly Check-Mate speedboat.

One time I found him working on something very top secret. It was a kite with a battery operated light attached. He was ready to fly it that night to see who would freak out!

One year a bigger than life size Buddha appeared in our back yard....which I personally thought was really cool!

The suit of cheesy armor was too creepy for me though!

I also thought it was amazing that he was the Captain Johnson who could land a 747

One summer we got to make and paint our own toy sailboats which really worked!

What didn’t work well was when he let my Dad pilot the big pontoon sailboat and we landed upside-down.

Another unforgettable fun time is when Uncle Al’s friend, Mr. Huseth landed his pontoon plane and we got to go for a ride over Lake Sylvia!

Then, I have to mention all the animals- dogs, cats, bunnies, skunks, chickens, geese, fish and those two poor pigs!

And then there was The Penguin!! Wow- for a kid that was like the ultimate awesome thing for an "adult" to decide to go into a soft serve Ice Cream Business! YES!

Thanks for many wonderful childhood memories that I am so grateful to remember.

Al Johnson will always be larger than life to me.
