

Alma Antonia Littlefield

February 19, 1920 - December 12, 2011 entered her Heavenly home Monday December 12, 2011 at the Benedictine Health Center of Innsbruck, New Brighton, MN surrounded by her family. Celebration Of Life will be held 7:00 pm (gathering beginning at 6 pm) Tuesday, December 20 at NORTH HEIGHTS LUTHERAN CHURCH, 2701 N. Rice Street, Roseville, MN. Interment will be at Memorial Park Cemetery, Mason City, Iowa. Alma was born on February 19, 1920, in Buh Township, MN, the daughter of Herman and Theresia (Zierer) Poser. Alma grew up on the family farm in Pierz, MN with twelve brothers and sisters and attended Pierz area schools. She was united in marriage to Charles (Chuck) Littlefield on October 29, 1946 in Pierz. Following their marriage they moved to Marshalltown before making their home in Mason City. Following her husband's death in 2001, Alma lived with her sons until moving to the Benedictine Health Center of Innsbruck in 2009. She is preceded in death by her parents, husband, brothers: Felix, Raymond, Urban, Herman, Benedict, and Arnold and sisters: Irene Britz, Barbara Short, Adeline Przybilla and Theresia Sanders. Those left to cherish her memory include two sons Don (Jan) Littlefield, Spring Lake Park, MN and David (Cherie) Littlefield, Lakeville, MN; five grandsons: Brett (Jill), Travis (Mandy), Jeremy, Brandon, and Dillon Littlefield along with six great-grandchildren: Tate, Clare, Reese, Payton, Avery & Macey. Also survived by brothers: Edmund & Leonard (Diane) Poser, both of Pierz, MN and many nieces and nephews. Alma loved and served her Lord and Savior. Her greatest delight was her family and she was a homemaker extraordinaire. She was an excellent cook and baker. No one ever left Alma's table hungry. Special Thanks to Drs. Spencer & Jan Johnson and everyone at BHCI for their never-ending care and compassion.
