“ I was so sad to hear this. I remember Mandy in High School. She was a very nice person; kind and caring and she always had a big smile. She was fun and I always enjoyed talking to her. I am so sorry, Jane and family, that you have to lose a dear family member another time. I will keep your whole family in my heart and in my prayers now and in the days ahead.

“ I was so sad to hear of Mandy's passing...I remember many summer afternoons with Mandy at the house on Highland is South St. Paul, riding our bikes over to the bookmobile...I loved her huge smile, and how when you'd run into her, she always seemed so genuinely happy to see you. She was so kind. She and your family is in my thoughts.

“ Mandy was such a wonderful person, and a sweet, loyal friend during our time together at Visitation. Her courage and steadfastness was an inspiration to me. I am so sorry to hear of her passing. Nothing was more rewarding than the pleasure of her smile - often preceded by a characteristic and charming giggle. We ran into each other a few years ago, and she seemed to be just the same: quick to smile, thoughtful, and quietly taking on life. I know she is finding comfort with her dad now, and hope you all can find comfort in good memories.
