

Amy Lenmark Johnson

September 2, 2017

Johnson, Amy Lenmark age 75, passed away September 2, 2017. Amy was the middle of three sisters born to Pierre Owen Lenmark and Janet Krohg Lenmark. Amy is preceded in death by her parents; her former husband Keith Johnson; nephew, Billy Sincock, and niece Katie Welch Wagner. Amy is survived by her sisters, Kay Martin (Jerry) of Shorewood, Sara Halverson (Bruce) of Edina, and Engeliem Erenstein (Jan) of Florida her AFS sister from Holland; her nieces, Sandi Welch, Terri Welch Blahoski (Roman), and Stephanie Opitz Lanford (Ethan); and grandnieces and nephews, Amber, Ben, Nick, Kassy, Kris, Tommy, Katie, Molly, Emmy, and Foss, and many loving cousins. Amy was a kind, caring, and sensitive soul who loved God, family, all the children she taught, and her many friends from all chapters in her life. She attended St. Louis Park High School and received a BA Degree from Parsons College in Elementary Education. She taught for 35 years starting on the Navajo Indian Reservation in Arizona, then in Redondo Beach, California, and then 32 years in Bloomington, MN. A service of remembrance will be held at Unity Christ Church, 4000 Golden Valley Rd., Golden Valley, on Wed., September 13 at 1:00 PM. In lieu of flowers, memorials preferred to The American Heart Association, and the Education Foundation of Bloomington. Washburn-McReavy.com Edina Chapel 952-920-3996