“Cuzzins.... this is David Perez... so sorry about Andres... me and him were good friends besides cousins... I remember playing basketball with him all around different courts in Minneapolis. he would call me and I would go where they were hoopin. I also remember stopping by the loading dock at night at the laundry place when he first started working there and we would just talk...then we talked on the phone... he would just call or I would just call him....I can hear him now saying "what up mayne" when he answered...dang... this is very sad..we went ice fishing and he tried cooking some meat on the little heater in the ice house and smoked the place up... man we laughed....so many memories....that was my guy, no lie!!! I miss you guys and especially Andres ...to my cuzzins Jesse, Jessica, Mario, Ricky, Teresa, Margaret. Michelle ... so sorry I couldn't attend the services..you are in mine and Barb's prayers...I love you guys...
