“ I am thankful that Tammy was invited to speak at my college thanks to Ashley. Tommy's friendship with Justin brought me to your family! I wish I knew him when Patrick started hanging out with him back when they were a lot younger.

I was so happy when he proposed to Jamie, whom I have been honored to know & call my daughter from another mama. Jamie I will always be here for you, sending you lots of love!

Andrew gave me hope through a very dark time in my life. I was so proud of how far he came! His smile did brighten up a room! My favorite memory was sitting with him & Tommy watching say yes to the dress. I loved how respectful Andrew was too. It's hard not to think about what I could have done, not knowing how this would be.

A few weeks ago, he reached out to me to ask some questions. Andrew's wish was he wanted to help people who needed resources for mental health. Andrew thank you for the last hug in my dream that night! You will always be missed!

Tammy, Shawn & family I am so sorry you had to walk this path again! Your son was an amazing young man! I loved him as my own! I am so thankful that Andrew was a part of my life.

“ Reading Andrew's book, The Witch's Hat, really gave me insight into Andrew's life and what made him the person he became. He always had a smile for everyone and could make you feel like you were the most important person in the world to him when you were with him. He and I had made plans just days ago for me to help him with his second book. I will definitely miss you, Nephew!

“ I had the honor of knowing both Andrew and his brother Justin. After Justin’s passing, I lost touch with the family but I never stopped being proud of who Andrew was and how he always pushed forward despite the hands the family was dealt.

Andrew, I wish I could have gotten to know you more over the years and I am sorry I didn’t get to. You will forever be remembered as a bright light that shines on all those you loved. Keep smiling Andrew... and tell Justin hi for me... I wish I could take this pain from your family.. I’ll do my best to be more present and help the family through this.

You were a great person Andrew and the world is a little less amazing without you.

“ Andrew, I love you so so much and you've taken another piece of my heart with you. I'm not sure what we'll do without you physically here. I'm so proud of what you accomplished in life, especially with your struggles. I just wish we could've helped you release the inner turmoil that you struggled with, especially after Justin's passing. I'm trying to find comfort knowing you are with Justin again and are hopefully at peace from your struggles. I'm just being selfish as I want my boys still here with me to hug and make more memories with together. I was looking forward to the plans we made for the near future just days ago. I was supposed to go first, not either of you. I'll miss your goofiness and your amazing smile. Shine bright with your beautiful light my baby boy. I'll forever hold so much love in my heart and soul for you that no one can ever take away.

“ Andrew, you had one of the biggest hearts out of anyone I've ever met. I remember at your wedding you hugged me and said "We are brothers now". I'm very thankful for the time we shared and the memories I will have with you. You were an amazing uncle, and I can't even begin to tell you how much we all miss you.
