

Andrew Wayne Brown

December 7, 1985 - November 9, 2020

Andy passed away peacefully at home on November 9th, 2020 surrounded by his family.

Andy was born on 12-07-85 in Minot, North Dakota to Ron and Jill Brown.

In his childhood, growing up in Minot, Andy loved fishing with his dad, playing with his dog Prince, and enjoyed music/art. Andy enjoyed camping and fishing with his family and dog out at Lake Sakakawea. Andy graduated from high school in 2004. As an adult, Andy and his parents moved to Farmington, MN, to join his sisters.

Andy continued with his passions for fishing, bowling, and commercial truck driving. Andy, his father, and Prince continued to fish the lakes and rivers of Minnesota in all seasons! He shared his adult life with his family and friends. Andy enjoyed backyard get-togethers at his sister's house nearby. Andy loved his 3 nephews and tried to always spend meaningful time with them and developed a great connection with them in their activities.

Andy received his commercial driver's certification at Dakota County Technical shortly after moving to Minnesota and enjoyed his Over The Road and local trucking career.

Andy accepted the Lord in December 2006 and that forever changed his life. He shared his faith in God with all that would listen.

He is preceded in death by his several grandparents and his sister Juanita. He is survived by his parents Ron & Jill Brown, his sister Juanita's son Andrew Brown, siblings Tina Kreger & husband Scott, Angela Hetland & husband Scott & their sons Myles and Reid.

“ Was awesome getting to know you. We met while catfishing and ended up hanging out for quite a few summers. You mentioned to me once that you hope I don't laugh after everything. OOPS sorry for not listening :) Rest in peace you were a light. Your perspective on the world and life was unique and I am glad I was able to be a small part of it.
