

Andrew Heiskary

November 23, 2018

Heiskary, Andrew Age 90 of Blaine, passed unexpectedly on November 23 2018. Preceded in death by parents, Edward and Lempi; sisters, Vivian Holmlund, Violet Larson, Mayme Anakkala, Jean Wuollet; and wife, LuVerne. He is survived by children Steve (Margaret), Doug, Darlene; grandchildren Tami, Melissa, Tristan, Alaina; also dear friend Joyce Nelson. Andy grew up on the family farm in Annandale Minnesota. He and LuVerne married in 1952, moving to their home in 1958 where Andy still resided. He was drafted and served in the Army as an aircraft mechanic, stationed at Mannheim Airfield Base in Germany 1954-56. He retired from Metallurgical Inc. where he worked as a maintenance mechanic for 35 years; a member of the UAW AFL-CIO. Andy played guitar daily as a favorite pastime, learned music by ear and had a long country music song list. He loved old time polka music. He was a hunter, lifelong fisherman, and enjoyed watching birds at his many feeders. He and LuVerne enjoyed traveling with the family throughout the U.S. and MN. He was an avid reader, newspaper front to back daily, as well as books. Very mechanically inclined and could build or repair just about anything. Andy was quick to make others feel comfortable and always had a joke or story to share. He was a proud "Finlander". Andy will be deeply missed by family & friends. Funeral service 11:00 am Monday December 3 at Christ Lutheran Church, Blaine, 641 89th Avenue NE 55434. Visitation at church prior to service 9:30-11:00. Funeral followed by luncheon and interment at Morningside Memorial Gardens, Coon Rapids. Memorials will be donated to
