

Andrew "Andy" Leiter

February 9, 1975 - February 2, 2024

Andrew "Andy" Leiter, 48, of Wyoming, MN passed away on Feb 2, 2024, after a courageous battle with cancer. He was surrounded by his loving wife Sara and his two children, Jase and Chloe, who he adored more than anything else in the world.

Andy had a passion for music, boating, bare foot skiing, snowmobiling in the mountains of Wyoming, and making new friends wherever he went. Within minutes of meeting Andy, he would make you feel as if you had known him forever. Andy was known to many as the toughest man they had ever met which he displayed even during his most challenging times. He was his family's rock, unflinching and steadfast. Andy was a real-life superhero to those that loved him. From always being there for a friend or family member in need, to winning the affection of all his family and friend's children with his infectious playfulness or simply making sure to put a smile on your face, Andy's legacy will live on through all the hearts he imprinted on.

Andy's greatest story was his "love" story. Andy met his soul mate, Sara, at the tender ages of 19 and spent the next 30 years devoted to creating a life full of memories, laughter and love that will live on in eternity. Even though their journey has changed, their love will continue as real love stories have no endings.

Andy is survived by his wife Sara of 25 years, his son Jase (26), daughter

Chloe (23), along with countless friends and family. Andy was loved by so many and proud to be the best husband, father, son, brother, grandson, uncle, nephew, cousin, coach, and friend that he could be.

“ Andy and I worked together both of us starting out in the HVAC business. A class act . Had the pleasure of running into him at the gym 5 years ago many times and had several great conversations. Mostly about family. Our sympathies to the family.
