“ Andrew was one of the most genuine people I have ever met. He was always the person who could provide words of encouragement, laughter and knowledge. After serving 3 years in the military together, we became not only friends, but brothers. I have appreciated and hold close the memories and great times that we shared. You will truly be missed and never forgotten. Thank you for the positive impact that you had not only on my life, but the lives of others as well.

*Your brother,
Daniel McCorkle*

This is for you kid.

You always hated it when I called you kid because you were older. Lol but I knew it gave a little smile every time I did.

Today I think it finally set in....you're really gone....

I was driving home tonight from work and I was remembering the countless days we'd talk forever while you were in the military. Helping you pass time and cheering you up. You would always go on these walks and call me and tell me all about your day and how one day we were going to have a puppy date for our little fur animals. 😊

I always felt a spark through you Andrew James Polak With your little jokes or your small smile. You were an amazing person. Kind, selfless, caring and would do anything for a friend. I know what I'm feeling now is nothing close compared to what your family is feeling. They have to be special people for having a special brother and son. And I pray for them daily.

I'm sorry you were in pain Andrew and that depression took such a kind soul.... but I'm glad you're not suffering. We all love you. Take care friend. I hope to see you in the morning
