

Andrew Stockwell

September 28, 2005

Stockwell Andrew Thomas Stockwell, age 13, life was tragically and abruptly cut short in a helicopter accident while vacationing with his mother, stepfather and sister in Cable, WI. Andrew died as he lived - having another peak experience. He was enthusiastic about each and every person and activity he encountered, and he will be missed more than words can say. He is joined in Heaven with his mother, Marnie Ruliffson, and he is survived by his father, Nicholas Stockwell; stepmother, Marlene McEwan; stepfather, Peter Ruliffson; sisters, Bonnie (Stockwell) Eder & family, Kelly (Stockwell) Hanson & family, and Jenny Ruliffson. He considered his stepbrothers, Mitch and Nick Swaggert, and his stepsisters, Lindsay Ruliffson and Kirsten Ruliffson to all be a part of his immediate family. He was loved and cherished by his many grandparents, aunts, uncles and cousins - all whom Andrew embraced equally. Andrew attended Eden Prairie Central Middle School where he loved - and was loved in return - by dozens of friends at school, Chaska hockey, and Wooddale Church. In addition, he loved snowboarding, played baritone sax, participated in the school play Annie, and was recently cast as the announcer in Charlie and the Chocolate Factory. He was the ultimate enthusiastic member of Wooddale Church, which helped shape his loving nature. In lieu of flowers, memorials are preferred to EPCMS Drama Club. The family looks forward to sharing the love that Andrew brought out in others on Wednesday, Sept. 28, 4-7 PM at the Washburn-McReavy Eden Prairie Chapel, 7625 Mitchell Rd (1 blk N. of Hwy 5) and then celebrating his life, along with his
