AN

“Moon and stars pour their healing light on you. Deep peace to you.”

These are lyrics to the song 'Deep Peace', shared in the notice we were given from Andi's choir group.

Andi was a grounding, warm presence. We joined Calliope choir around the same time and got to know each other in the Alto section. They were there to confide in when the music notations felt tricky, and to laugh with when we attempted to sing a new section, poorly.

I only got to see Andi once a week, if that, and could tell they were an incredibly thoughtful and strong individual. I wish we could have sung longer together- and hope their spirit can join the music of the universe, wherever they choose to go.

MY

“Rest in peace. I didn't know Andrea but read her obituary in the El Paso Times and then ended up watching her interview. My prayers are with Eva and with Andrea's extended family. Her life obviously made a difference and I hope that her speaking out helps to change healthcare related issues.”
