“ Hello,
I am sorry for your loss. Andy was a terrific colleague and was instrumental in helping with our Health Sciences' meetings that span all colleges and schools. Around four years ago, Andy helped line up use of the SPH Dean's office for a conversation about accessibility. It was one of our first hybrid meetings where we attempted to mix in-person with an online audience (seems so ordinary now). At that time we were reliant upon experts like Andy!
We will miss having Andy on campus.
