“ I will always remember my time with Angela at Wayside and the quick-wit when responding to some of the lame comments of some of the other girls. Never in a mean spirited way. Just to make us laugh. And she had me doubled up in laughter so many times. And half the time it was just hearing her laugh! I could hear her laughing down the hall and having no idea why I would still start to laugh just hearing her voice! God I miss that! I hope you are in heaven dear and keeping everyone laughing!
