

Ann Woodruff Degen

September 26, 1934 - January 29, 2025

Degen, Ann Woodruff Age 90 of Bloomington, passed away quietly January 29, 2025 after a long battle with Alzheimer's Disease. Preceded in death by her parents, four sisters, son Daniel and daughter-in-law Maureen. Ann was the eldest of a large family in White Bear Lake where she met and married Bob, her life partner of 69 years. Together, they lived in South St Paul, Bloomington and Hayward, WI. Ann was a beloved wife, mother, grandmother, sister and friend to many. She loved camping, and time spent with family and friends. She was a talented crafter and in addition to needlepoint and cross stitch, her sewing skills were exemplary and appreciated by many bridal parties. Her true passion was quilting. She was a proud founding member of Minnesota Quilters and owned fabric stores in Eagan where she taught quilting classes to 100's. She was a kind, thoughtful, loving person who selflessly gave to others. Ann's loving spirit lives on through her Children: Heidi Degen, Gretchen Hartman, Christopher Degen (Maureen), Robert Degen. Daughter-in-Law: Susanne Degen, Grandchildren: Jessica Carter (Steve), Emma Degen (Mae Flavin), Blake Hartman (Erin), Reed Hartman, Nicholas Degen, Jennifer Degen: 4 great grandchildren, 2 siblings, and many other family and friends. Funeral service is Friday February 7th at 3pm at Washburn-McReavy Werness Brothers Chapel, 2300 W Old Shakopee Rd, Bloomington, MN 55431. Visitation begins at 1:30pm.
