“ Ann was my Sunday School teacher when I was three years old. Both Ann and Don were special friends of ours, and we have precious memories of them both. Ann was really fond of our dog Joseph, no wonder since her middle name is Josephine!

Ann & Don were very dear to us as they continually, year after year, sent us gifts to keep our Gospel singing group, Heart Song, going. Ann and Doug's Mom, Ardie, were great friends. Ann loved to call "Little Dougie", her "boyfriend", even after Doug & Judy were married! They, too had a sweet connection. Our family Gospel group sang at a couple of events that Ann & Don had at "The Farm". We also sang at Many of the "Seniors " events that Ann planned at First Free. What a sweet, godly and loving friend she was to us! She had a beautiful impact on many as she served her Lord Jesus.
